

Seton Hall At-a-Glance

One of the country's leading Catholic universities, Seton Hall University has been developing students in mind, heart and spirit since 1856. Home to nearly 10,000 undergraduate and graduate students and offering more than 90 rigorous majors, Seton Hall's academic excellence has been singled out for distinction by The Princeton Review, U.S. News & World Report and Bloomberg Businessweek.

Seton Hall's 58-acre main campus is located in the quaint town of South Orange, New Jersey, only 14 miles from Manhattan. The University's nationally-ranked School of Law is located in nearby Newark, N.J. The new Inter-professional Health Sciences (IHS) campus, situated in the towns of Clifton and Nutley, N.J., will open in the summer of 2018. The IHS campus will house Seton Hall's College of Nursing, School of Health and Medical Sciences and the new Seton Hall–Hackensack Meridian School of Medicine.

Seton Hall Ranked in Top 25 Nationally for Student Financial 'Mobility'

The Chronicle of Higher Education has ranked Seton Hall University among the Top 25 of all private universities in the nation for the upward financial mobility of its students.

According to The Chronicle, the mobility rate, by which the ranking was derived, is "a measure of the percentage of all students in a birth cohort at a particular college whose parents were in the bottom 20 percent for household income, and who reached the top 20 percent for individual earnings."
