

Fachhochschule Nordwestschweiz
Hochschule für Technik

FHNW University of Applied Sciences and Arts Northwestern Switzerland

The FHNW is a leading university of applied sciences in Switzerland. It is composed of nine schools at four main campuses in the operating cantons Aargau, Basel-Landschaft, Basel-Stadt and Solothurn. Its broad range of degree programmes, its hands-on concept, its innovative research and its global network make the FHNW a diverse educational institution, a sought-after partner in industry and an attractive employer in northwestern Switzerland.

Facts & Figures

The FHNW fulfils a fourfold mandate from the Swiss Federation and the Swiss Conference of Cantonal Ministers of Education (EDK): education/training, applied research and development, continuing education, and services to third parties.

Education/Training

- 29 bachelor's degree programmes (Bachelor of Science/BSc and Bachelor of Arts/BA) with 9436 students
- 18 master's degree programmes (Master of Science/MSc and Master of Arts/MA) with 1826 students

Applied Research and Development

- 1'067 projects with industry partners contributing external funds of CHF 47.6 million and a self-financing ratio of 71 percent (direct costs)

Continuing Education

- 3'252 qualifications issued, including
- 507 for Master of Advanced Studies (MAS) programmes
- 205 for Diploma of Advanced Studies (DAS) programmes
- 2'540 for Certificate of Advanced Studies (CAS) programmes
- External funds of CHF 47.2 million with a self-financing ratio of 144 percent (direct costs)

Services

- 314 projects with external funds of CHF 6.2 million and a self-financing ratio of 129 percent (direct costs)

1917-2017

100th Anniversary
Shanghai University of Finance and Economics

上海财经大学 100周年校庆